Total maximum contribution 82 000 000 SEK
5.2.2 The financing provided by Sida to MUHAS, in accordance with Article 5.2 and the Programme Budget (Enclosure 2), shall be paid in instalments upon receipt and approval by Sida of written payment requests signed by MUHAS’s authorised representative(s). Disbursements are conditional upon the fulfilment of the requirements in this Agreement, progress in relation to Programme objectives and expected results indicated by annual financial and narrative reports and annual audit reports approved by Sida, as well as actual cash flow needs in accordance with presented and by Sida approved Annual Plans including budgets.

5.2.3 Formal requirements for the funds to be disbursed to MUHAS.
The request for funds to MUHAS shall be submitted in original to Sida, with information on the title of the Agreement and the contribution ID number (51170072). The request shall be signed by the responsible function of MUHAS, namely the Vice Chancellor or his/her designated representative. The requested amount shall be stated in the currency of Swedish Krona (SEK), independent of which currency the payment shall be effectuated in.

The payment will be made in a convertible currency other than Swedish Krona (SEK) provided it has been clearly stated in the request and provided that the account can receive the currency indicated. The exchange of the SEK will be made by Sida’s bank following the payment instructions from Sida.

The following complete bank details have to be included in the request:

- whether the account is interest bearing or not
- bank account holder,
- bank account number,
- IBAN (if applicable),
- SWIFT/Bic-code,
- Currency of the account

5.2.4 The first request from MUHAS shall be accompanied by a letter sent from the Tanzanian bank to Sida including an assurance regarding the following: bank account holder, bank account number, IBAN (if applicable), SWIFT/Bic-code as well as the currency of the account.

5.3 The financing provided by Sida shall be deposited in a separate foreign exchange interest bearing account held by MUHAS in accordance with the banking regulation in Tanzania. The statement shall include the received amount in the received currency as well as the equivalent amount credited in local currency.

5.4. The first payment to MUHAS shall be deposited into the designated account(s) based on signature of this Agreement followed by a request in writing.

5.5 Subsequent payments to MUHAS shall be made based on the reporting requirements in Articles 8-9 and Article 13 as well as liquidity needs according to presented and by Sida approved Annual Plans and Budgets. A prerequisite for disbursement is that there is a need for funds, that is, expenditure exceeds 70% of previously disbursed funds. Each disbursement request must include a bank statement and a financial report on the use of all previously disbursed funds.

5.6 Should circumstances arise that call the feasibility or validity of the Programme into question or cause MUHAS to make major changes in its objectives, or if MUHAS decides to make any substantial deviation from the plan presented, MUHAS must obtain Sida’s written approval before continuing the Programme or before implementing such changes.

Sida may decide to withhold the disbursement, wholly or in part, if substantial deviations from the agreed plan, budget or results framework occur, reports are not delivered as agreed, or circumstances are otherwise revealed which makes the Programme develop unfavourably in any other important respect. Before taking such decision, Sida shall initiate discussions with MUHAS.

If the conditions set out in this article are not fulfilled or fully complied with, Sida may reclaim funds disbursed, wholly or in part, from MUHAS.

Article 6 – Financial management

MUHAS shall ensure that administration and internal control of Programme resources are adequately carried out. MUHAS shall maintain an appropriate financial management system for the Programme in accordance with the Tanzanian Public Financial Regulation and the MUHAS Financial Regulations, and any revision of these during the activity period.

Article 7 – Procurement

MUHAS shall be responsible for all procurements under the Programme in accordance with the Tanzanian Public Procurement Act (PPA) 2011, and any revisions of it during the Agreement period.

A Procurement Plan, detailing the procurement activities, shall form part of the Annual Plan and be discussed at the Annual Planning Meetings before approval.

At the request of either of the Parties, consultations shall be held on any matter relating to procurement within the Programme; Sida may carry out checks on procurement within the Programme, in the form of a procurement audit. In such cases, MUHAS shall provide Sida with all necessary documentation and information. The Parties may agree that, as part of the Swedish contribution, Sida shall provide a procurement expert to support competence development at MUHAS.

Article 8 – Financial reporting

8.1 MUHAS shall furnish an Annual Financial Report no later than September 30 each year in accordance with template to be approved by Sida. The financial reports shall be signed by the Vice Chancellor of MUHAS or his/her designated representative and cover all Programme receipts and expenditures.

The Financial Report shall show funding from Sida, in form and detail that permit identification of disbursements on agreed Programme document including budgets which enable comparison of the expenditure with actual plans and budgets and at the same level of detail as the approved plans and budgets.

6 of 14
8.2 The Annual Financial Reports shall include information on the received amount, both in the currency of transfer and the amount in the local currency, exchange rate and information on the date when the amount has been credited. The Annual Financial Report shall also include information on the total spending, broken down in accordance with the agreed budget headings, per reporting period as well as cumulated amounts for the entire Programme period.

8.3. Any interest that Swedish funds may yield shall be separately accounted for in the financial reporting and may only be utilized within the Programme after written approval by Sida.

Article 9 – Narrative reporting

MUHAS will furnish to Sida in writing a narrative report annually in accordance with template to be approved by Sida. The Annual Narrative Report shall contain a description and an analysis of the progress of the Programme with relation to its objectives, planned activities and expected and achieved results, and the results based management log frames as further elaborated in the approved Annual Plans.

The Annual Narrative Report will cover the Tanzanian fiscal year from 1 July to 30 June. A draft will be delivered to Sida before the 30 of September for each year, and a final version shall be submitted to Sida before 31 of December each year. The Annual Narrative Report shall contain an account on a cumulative basis covering the entire Programme period, of

- activities achieved during the period of reporting,

- achieved outputs compared to planned outputs,

- achieved outcome objective(s) compared to planned outcome objective(s) (or progress towards achieving the outcome objective(s) and an assessment of the likelihood of achieving the planned outcome objectives,

- achieved impact,

- an assessment of risk factors that may affect the achievement of the objectives, and

- an assessment of possible adjustments in the Programme implementation, including risk management.

9.2 MUHAS will furnish to Sida in writing a draft Completion Report by 30 September 2020 at the latest. The final version of the Completion Report shall be submitted to Sida no later than 31 December 2020. The Completion Report shall contain an account on a cumulative basis covering the entire activity period 1 July 2015 – 30 June 2020, of

- achieved outputs compared to planned outputs,

- achieved outcome objective(s) compared to planned outcome objective(s),

- an assessment of factors that have affected the achievement of the objectives,

- lessons learned from the Programme implementation,

- an assessment of possible needs for adjustments in a potential new phase of the cooperation, including risk mitigating actions.

7 of 14
9.3 MUHAS shall provide Sida with all such information relevant to the implementation of the Programme as may be requested by Sida.

Article 10 – Consultations

10.1 The Parties shall cooperate and regularly communicate with each other on all matters relevant to the implementation of the Programme and this Specific Agreement.

10.2 The Parties shall meet every year, to discuss the planning, implementation and progress of the Programme in the statutory Annual Planning and Review Meetings, and additional meetings when required. The Overall Programme Coordinator shall call all meetings.

- The Annual Planning Meeting shall be called for no later than 1 March each year, and held by 30 May at the latest.
- The Annual Review Meeting shall be called for no later than September 1 each year, and held by November 30 at the latest.

10.3 The following information required for the Annual Planning Meeting (APM) should be furnished and distributed by MUHAS to Sida 4 weeks prior to the meeting:

- Draft Annual Plans and Budgets for the forthcoming year, as per agreed upon templates.
- A summary of suggested changes in the draft Annual Plans, compared to previous plans, as per project.
- A summary of suggested budget re-allocations.
- An Annual Procurement Plan for the forthcoming year.
- A summary of revised Results Based Management Matrices.
- Any reviews, audits or evaluations, conducted by MUHAS and/or their partners, of relevance to the Programme in terms of finding synergies, pursuing complementarity and avoiding duplication of different support, shall be shared with Sida.
- Information about any legal or other significant changes in the context of Tanzania, or regarding the Swedish universities/institutions collaborating with MUHAS, of relevance to the implementation of the Programme.

The final Annual Plan based on the agreements reached at the Annual Planning Meeting shall be submitted to Sida for approval no later than 30 June annually.
The following information required for the Annual Review Meeting should be furnished and distributed by MUHAS to Sida 4 weeks prior to the meeting:

- Reports and documents as set out in article 9 of this Specific Agreement, as per agreed upon templates.

  Any reviews, audits or evaluations, conducted by MUHAS and/or their partners, of relevance to the Programme in terms of findings, pursuing complementarity and avoiding duplication of different support, shall be shared with Sida.

- Any legal or other significant changes in the context of Tanzania, or regarding the Swedish universities/institutions collaborating with MUHAS, of relevance to the implementation of the Programme.

10.4 Key subjects to be discussed during the annual consultations include, but is not limited to, assessment/review of performance related to the Results Based Management framework, review of Annual Plans and Budgets for forthcoming fiscal years, alignment of the Programme to the policies/strategy of MUHAS, expenditure priorities and follow-up on audits/reviews/evaluations.

10.5 The outcome of the meetings shall be recorded in Agreed Minutes, signed by the authorised representative(s) of both Parties. The Agreed Minutes shall be drafted by the Directorate for Research and Publication at MUHAS and a draft shall be sent to Sida, for its comments, within one week after the meeting. Sida shall inform MUHAS of its comments within three days of receipt of the draft. MUHAS is responsible for the circulation of the signed Agreed Minutes to all collaboration partners (Tanzania and Sweden).

10.6 Additional consultation meetings may be requested by MUHAS and Sida on any subject relevant to the implementation of the Programme.

10.7 MUHAS shall immediately inform Sida of any circumstance which may interfere or threaten to interfere with the successful implementation of the Programme and, with a view to resolving the issue, shall call for a meeting to inform or consult with Sida on what corrective action, if any, should be taken.

Article 11 – Monitoring

11.1 MUHAS is responsible for monitoring progress and performance of the Programme and the achievement of its expected outputs and outcomes measured by the Results Based Management framework, as per Sida’s Handbook on RBM for Research Cooperation (Enclosure 6), or any revision of this handbook during this Agreement.

11.2 Sida will monitor the compliance and performance based on this Agreement. Progress will be measured through the agreed performance indicators as described in the Results Based Management framework and other relevant information.

11.3 The process of reviewing the progress of implementation of the Programme will be aligned with MUHAS’s review process. MUHAS and Sida will maintain a close dialogue regarding the support and the implementation of the Programme.
Art 12 – Evaluation

12.1 If Sida carries out an (interim or ex post) evaluation or a monitoring mission, MUHAS shall undertake to provide any document or information, visits of Programme locations and inspect property, goods and records which will assist with the evaluation or monitoring mission, and grant the access rights described in Article 13.5.

12.2 If either Party carries out or commissions an evaluation in the course of the Programme, it must provide the other Party with a copy of the evaluation report.

12.3 MUHAS shall undertake an internal Mid-Term Review (MTR) of the Programme in the last quarter of 2017. An external Programme evaluation shall be conducted in 2019. The costs for the external evaluation and the external audit shall be borne by Sida.

Article 13 – Audit

13.1 MUHAS shall share with Sida the audits of MUHAS carried out by the Controller and Auditor General of Tanzania, as well as any action plans to address potential qualifications in these.

13.2 The MUHAS Programme shall be audited annually. Sida will align to national procedures for audits and accept the audit firms appointed by the Controller and Auditor General to carry out the audit of the Programme.

13.3 If requested by Sida an external audit of the Programme shall be carried out by an external independent and qualified auditor annually. The audit shall be carried out in accordance with international standards issued by the International Organisation of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI) or the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) or in accordance with comparable national standards.

If requested by Sida the audit shall also cover the progress report of the Programme.

Sida’s standard Terms of Reference for financial audit shall be used as reference (Enclosure 4) and the final Terms of Reference shall be approved by Sida. MUHAS shall furnish to Sida the Audit Report and the management letter as presented by the Controller and Auditor General of Tanzania and/or appointed audit firm.

13.4 MUHAS shall furnish Sida with the Audit Report for the Programme and the management letter as presented by the Controller and Auditor General of Tanzania and/or appointed audit firm no later than 31 March each year 2017-2021

If the audit contains any remarks or recommendations, MUHAS shall furnish Sida within three weeks, with a Management Response including an Action plan. The Action Plan shall be reported on by MUHAS in writing every 6 months.

13.5 Sida may at any time commission or request any additional audits (such as procurement or forensic audits), follow-ups or financial studies. MUHAS shall co-operate with and assist Sida in any such audits.

13.6 During the first year of the Programme the management capacity will be subject to a specific system audit with the purpose to identify bottlenecks and improve on current financial and administrative capacity. If deemed necessary, Sida may consider additional support to improve management efficiency.

Costs for the additional audits other than the annual audits performed by the Controller and Auditor General of Tanzania and/or appointed audit firm will be financed by Sida.

Article 14 – Corruption

14.1 The Parties will cooperate on preventing fraud and corruption in connection with the Programme, and shall require that the staff involved in, and consultants/suppliers/contractors financed under the Programme refrain from offering third parties, or seeking, accepting or being promised by third parties, for themselves or for any other party, any gift, remuneration, compensation or benefit of any kind whatsoever, which could be interpreted as an illegal or corrupt practice.

14.2 The Parties shall promptly inform each other of any instances or suspicions of fraud and corruption as referred to in this article and of the measures taken as referred to in the following subparagraph.

14.3 The Parties shall take swift action to stop, initiate investigations and if relevant take actions in order to initiate prosecution against and/or apply sanction in accordance with applicable laws and policies towards any person suspected of misuse of resources, fraud or corruption in connection with the Programme.

Article 15 – Ethical Approval

15.1 Ethical approval of medical or health research projects within the Programme, is required as follows:

For projects carried out in their entirety in Sweden, Swedish regulations shall apply.

For projects carried out in other countries the following rules shall apply:

- Projects involving human subjects require ethical approval by a responsible authority in the country concerned. Where Swedish researchers or institutions participate, approval is also required from a Swedish ethical committee.

- Projects involving clinical trials of drugs, vaccines or other pharmaceutical preparations require, in addition, informed consent by the subject receiving them, approval by a drug regulatory authority or other responsible authority in the country concerned. Where Swedish researchers/institutions participate or Swedish products are tested, approval shall also be obtained from the Medical Products Agency (Läkemedelsverket) in Sweden.

- Projects involving experiments with animals should, whenever possible, be approved by a responsible authority in the country concerned. Where Swedish researchers or institutions participate, approval is also required from a Swedish ethical committee for animal experiments.

- When changes or additions are made to the original project plan renewed ethical approval is required.

- The recipient scientist/institution is responsible for ensuring that ethical approval in accordance with the above-mentioned rules is obtained before the study is started. Sida retains the right to require that the recipient scientist/institution produce proof of ethical approval before the grant is disbursed.

Article 16 – Patents and know-how

16.1 As regards patents and know-how, MUHAS and the Swedish universities/institutions collaborating with MUHAS as well as researchers participating in the Programme shall have access to all results and know-how obtained within the Programme. Each party that has participated in the cooperation shall have the right to the patent in their own name and at their own expense, according to the national legislation that respective party is subjected to.

The registration fees for the patent shall be divided equally between the participating institutions. The participating institutions shall mutually agree whether or not the patent is to be registered in a third country.

16.2 Should one participating institution choose not to exercise its right to apply for a patent, the other institution(s) are to be given the option to do so in their own name and at their own expenses.

16.3 The participating institutions shall have the right to equal shares of the revenue derived from granting of user licences to third parties if the patent is registered by mutual agreement. The granting of user licences and patent(s) shall be determined in each case by mutual Agreement between the participating institutions, provided the participating institutions agree in delegating such a task to one party.

Article 17 – Visibility and information

17.1 Research results shall be freely published and distributed. Due credit and recognition shall be given to Sida (if published by a Swedish partner) or Sweden (if published by non-Swedish partner) and to MUHAS. “Sida” or “Sweden” cannot be used in any way that can be perceived as if Sida or Sweden has participated in the production or support any opinions presented.

17.2 When referring to activities, fully or partly financed in accordance with this Agreement, MUHAS shall always recognize that the activities are financed through Swedish development aid. The Sweden logotype shall be used in the production of publications, information materials and in connection with information activities in Tanzania; the Sida logotype shall be used for publications (including Ph.D. dissertations), information materials and in connection with information activities held in Sweden. The production of information materials is fully the responsibility of the Programme and the liability of the contents lies with the publisher. “Sida” or “Sweden” cannot be used in any way that can be perceived as if Sida or Sweden has participated in the production or support any opinions presented.

17.3 Sida and other departments of the Swedish administration abroad shall have the right to copies and to distribute in a suitable form any reports and studies that have been submitted by MUHAS to Sida as part of the reporting.

Article 18 – Repayment

18.1 Sida shall establish the final amount of the contribution to MUHAS up to a maximum as of article 5.2, upon receipt and approval of the final report(s) (narrative/financial) and audited accounts of the Programme. Funds which have been placed at the MUHAS’s disposal and which remain after completion of the Programme shall be returned to Sida within 60 days after the approval of the financial audit.
18.2 Sida will inform MUHAS of the amount to be repaid to Sida as well as the preferred currency and bank details.

Article 19 – Remedies

19.1 In the event of non-compliance by MUHAS with the provisions of this Specific Agreement Sida reserve the right to exercise the following remedies including withholding further disbursements and/or reduction of new disbursements, seeking refund of disbursed funds or termination of its support to the Programme.

19.2 In case of breach of the Agreement, Sida may terminate the Agreement with two months’ notice.

19.3 In case of serious breach of the Agreement, Sida may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect.

19.4 In cases of termination by Sida the termination shall not apply to funds irrevocably committed in good faith by MUHAS to third parties before the date of the notice of termination, provided that the commitments were made in accordance with this Agreement.

19.5 Any termination shall be done by written notice of termination.

Article 20 – Termination and dispute settlement

This Agreement shall remain valid until 30 June 2021 unless terminated earlier by six months’ written notice by either Party. In case of termination by MUHAS, no funds shall be made available for activities after six months of the written notice. All rights and obligations of the Parties pursuant to this Agreement shall continue unimpaired until the return of the remaining funds/fund balance to Sida and fulfilment of the reporting requirements of this Agreement, at which time this Agreement expires.

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Specific Agreement that cannot be settled amicably shall be definitively resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.

A single arbitrator shall be appointed. The place of arbitration shall be Stockholm and the language used in the proceedings shall be English.

This Specific Agreement shall be governed by the substantive law of Sweden without regard to its conflict of law rules.

Article 21 – Entry into force

This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature of both Parties, but with an activity period for the Programme regulated in this Agreement from 1 July 2015 until 30 June 2020.
This Agreement has been signed in three original documents, one for MUHAS and two for Sida.
